SPI Health and Safety improves efficiency and cuts costs with Infor F9

Facts at a glance

Products: Infor F9®, Infor® Distribution SX.e, Infor EPAK

Industry: Safety products and service

Country: Canada

“We’ve reduced our month-end processing of financial statements from approximately 15 hours for 3 companies down to just 1 hour total. We’ve saved time and improved processes and efficiency, all of which relate back to cost savings for the organization.”

—Mark Meitin, manager, continuous improvement, SPI Health and Safety

Challenges

- Streamline financial reporting processes.
- Reduce time preparing month-end, quarterly, and annual reports and budgets.
- Consolidate and integrate financial sources.
- Reduce manual processes and paperwork to increase overall staff efficiency.
- Improve real-time visibility and analytic capabilities.

Benefits

- Reduced the month-end reporting cycle time for three companies from 15 hours to 1 hour.
- Linked the general ledger to other relevant databases and sources to effectively eliminate the time and costs associated with the report consolidation process.
- Enhanced the ability to filter and analyze data, resulting in better decision-making.
- Improved productivity with the ability to merge data from multiple sources and transform it into valuable information.
- Improved staff efficiency and morale by freeing up time for more strategic tasks.

"In addition to all the tangible financial gains the company has enjoyed from cost reductions, the employees within the finance department are happier. The morale of the finance department has improved because the staff has gained additional time each month to do tasks they previously didn't have time to finish."

—Mark Meitin, manager, continuous improvement, SPI Health and Safety
